Business at a Standstill, Troops are Assaulted and Martial Law is Declared.

OVER 200 CASUALTIES.

Warsaw, June 24.—The casualties at Lodz up to 3 o'clock add 33 deaths to the 171 killed yesterday.

The rioting today spread to Czenstoch, Poland, and twenty-three were killed and eighty-five were wounded there.

The massacre at Lodz yesterday was worse than the Sunday at St. Petersburg.

Warsaw, June 24.—The reign of terror which has turned Lodz into a slaughter pen in the conflict between troops and working people continues.

Reports today show that a veritable pitched battle is being fought in the streets.

A call was sent the governor-general here for assistance and three regiments of infantry and cavalry troops were dispatched on a special train for Lodz.

Fighting this morning became more general.

Factories and shops are closed, no newspapers have appeared and this morning no cars were running.

Chaos Everywhere.

Lodz, Russian Poland, June 24.—Since early yesterday morning this city has been in a state of panic. The strike is general and all factories and shops are closed. Barricades have been erected at many points. Rifle volleys and revolver shots are heard continually. Many persons have been killed or wounded but it is impossible at present to ascertain the number with any exactitude, owing to the general character of disturbances.

A mob sacked a number of liquor stores and broke street lamps. Street railroad traffic is interrupted.

Martial Law Declared.

Lodz, Russian Poland, June 24.—Troops have stormed barricades erected in the streets by strikers. Fifty persons were killed, 290 wounded. Martial law is declared.

A NEW FIRM

MR. GEORGE ROCK SELLS AN INTEREST IN SHOE STORE.

Mr. Edward Bringham and Mr. David Koger are the purchasers of interests.

Mr. George Rock has sold his retail shoe store to Mr. Edward Bringham and Mr. David Koger, who will assume charge the first of August. Mr. Rock will retain an interest in the business and the new firm will be the George Rock Shoe Company.

Mr. Rock has been in business in Paducah over 46 years and has been very successful, being rated as one of the wealthiest of Paducah's business men, and in selling his business he is only fulfilling a desire to retire from active business.

Mr. Bringham and Mr. Koger are two very popular young men, and connected with some of the most prominent families in the city. Mr. Bringham is a nephew of Mr. H. H. Scott, and Mr. Koger the son of Captain Jas. A. Koger. Mr. Bringham is a young man of proven business ability and Mr. Koger is just out of school where he stood high. The new firm has every prospect of success.

Shows Earlier Than Usual.

If present plans do not miscarry, the theater will open here this year earlier than ever known before. Manager Thomas Roberts will in a few days in all probability book either the Richards & Pringles or the Billy Kerns negro minstrel for the Kentucky to play to colored people only on August 8, the great colored holiday in this part of the country. Another early show may be the melodrama of Lord Baltimore, for August 31.

THE MAYOR EXPECTS TO PREFER CHARGES

If the Investigation Justifies Such a Course.

Board of Aldermen Can Hear the Case and Repeal Officer if It So Desires.

OTHER MUNICIPAL NEWS NOTES.

Mayor D. A. Yeiser, in regard to preferring formal charges against whoever is guilty in the difficulty between City Jailor Thomas Everts, and Officer Sam Headless, said he would be guided by the evidence in the case.

It is the duty of the mayor to file charges before the board of aldermen and the officer, whether he be executive, judicial or ministerial, may be ejected from office by a two-thirds vote of the aldermen.

As a result of the encounter, which is said to have originated over the officer ordering some women put out of a saloon on 13th and Clay streets, the city jailor's hands are in bandages and the officer is too badly bruised up to work. It is said that the officer's club was taken away from him and used on him by someone, but the facts will not be known until after the trial.

Mayor Yeiser said charges could be preferred now and the board of aldermen investigate the case, but that he would wait until the investigation is held by the courts, and then prefer charges if there is anything to justify them.

This morning at the instance of Chief of Police James Collins, Police Judge D. L. Sanders issued a bench of the peace warrant against the city jailor and officer. They will be given a hearing Monday morning in police court.

The case has aroused a great deal of interest. Chief Collins stated this afternoon that he could not obtain any positive facts about Sam Everts, a brother of Jailor Everts, being implicated. He stated that some claim Officer Headless struck Jailor Everts first, while others claim the opposite.

A beer wagon driver is also said to be mixed up in the affair, but he claims all he did was simply to interfere to prevent further fighting.

City Jailor Everts has a badly broken finger on the right hand sustained in the difficulty.

The Nashville "boosters," who were in the city yesterday were pleased with the possibility of such good streets in Paducah. There are few cities in the country that have such straight, level streets as Paducah. There is not a single hill or slope of consequence in the entire city. The Nashville men also said that Paducah would make no mistake in using the bitulith material, which Nashville is using almost exclusively.

The board of works has received a number of letters from various contractors who say they will be here next Friday to be present at the opening of bids for the Kentucky avenue and Jefferson street improvement contracts. It is likely there will be several bids.

Mr. John Theobald, the butcher, was summoned this morning for breach of ordinance, to appear before the police judge Monday morning. Mr. Theobald's cow was found running at large within the city limits and taken up. This makes about the fourth or fifth cow owner summoned in answer to breach of ordinance and several cows remain impounded, the owners not having shown up.

The cow catcher yesterday arrested one or two and the day before got six bovines.

Dr. Lillard Sanders returned from Chicago this morning. He accompanied Mr. and Mrs. David Sanders to that city. Mrs. Sanders being placed under the treatment of a specialist. Mrs. Sanders has been ill in the railroad hospital in this city, and is reported resting well, having stood the trip well.

Officers Thad Terrell and E. A. Cross of the Broadway beat, are the first patrolmen to make an arrest for violating the "anti-spitting ordinance." They were patrolling their beat on Broadway this morning and at the corner of Third and Broadway at the Citizen's Savings bank, noticed a great deal of tobacco spit

Jones was not found by the police until this afternoon, when he was discovered lying under a shed near Second and Jefferson streets. He is not thought to be seriously hurt.

THE A. D. T.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE HERE SOON.

The New District Superintendent Arrived in Paducah Today to Make Inspection.

Mr. Phillip Kern, district superintendent for the American District Telegraph Co. of Atlanta, Ga., is in Paducah looking over the local plant with the view of greatly improving the service in many ways.

His company works the Western Union Co., and has charge of the operation of burglar alarms, private mill and manufacturing fire alarms, burglar alarms in banks, etc. Mr. Kern was sent here to inspect the local plant and make what improvements he thinks necessary.

He has finished his work at Memphis and intends to remain in Paducah several weeks. Among the improvements he intends making is the installation of a private burglar alarm system in all banks and also a direct fire alarm system to be worked in connection with the city alarms. At present alarms from the mills are turned in to the Western Union Co. offices and the A. D. T. Co. wants to perfect the service.

Mr. Kern is well known here. He was formerly a telegraph operator and has risen rapidly. A number of times he has worked in Paducah at the Western Union key during the illness or absence of regular men.

on the concrete pavement. They passed on by and turning saw a white man deposit quite a lot of juice on the pavement. They promptly nabbed him and took him to the city hall.

He gave his name as Jack Hughes and stated he resided just outside the city limits in the northern portion of the city. He will be given a hearing before Police Judge D. L. Sanders Monday morning, and now that the ball has started rolling, it is likely more arrests for this class of ordinance violation will follow.

JUDGE REED WILL APPOINT RECEIVER

Another Body Blow for the Home Purchasing Co.

The Court Also Decided That the Recent Assignment Was Null and Void.

CASE BECOMING COMPLICATED.

Circuit Judge W. M. Reed this morning in circuit court announced that he would appoint a receiver for the Home Purchasing company, but did not state whom it will be, or when he will make the appointment.

He also decided that the assignment made by the company a few days ago was null and void, both of which decisions are victories for the contract holders.

It is said that Mr. F. G. Randolph will be appointed and that Attorney Cecil Reed may be appointed to act jointly with Mr. Randolph.

Attorney Cecil Reed was named as assignee in the assignment deed filed day before yesterday in county court.

The suit asking for the appointment of a receiver was brought several days ago by Attorneys Crice and Ross for several contract holders in the company.

Following this suit the company sold its contract rights to a Lexington concern, and on the following day filed a deed of assignment naming Attorney Cecil Reed as assignee.

Judge Reed in his opinion this morning stated that 80 per cent. of the funds paid in were to go into a reserve fund to be held in trust for the redemption of the contracts, and could not be assigned, therefore the deed of assignment was null and void. He stated he had decided to appoint a receiver which he would do at his earliest convenience.

Attorneys Wheeler, Hughes & Hervey, and Taylor and Lucas, stated that they intended taking an appeal from the decision at an early date.

In connection with the Home Purchasing case it is understood that H. H. Loving, formerly of Paducah, but now of Atlanta, and J. S. Bordeaux, of the city, have been warranted at Atlanta for alleged failure to deposit a $20,000 bond required of all investment companies but the trial there has not yet taken place.

There is now an attorney here from Atlanta working on the Home Purchasing case at this end of the line, and he is said to have asserted today that he expected to land several people in the penitentiary before he gets through.

One story that is told is that some of the main men in the scheme who conceived it, partly executed it, and got about everything there was out of it, unloaded on innocent people and left them with the bag to hold. In other words, it is claimed that some of those now in the company were grossly deceived into becoming identified with it, while others pulled out and took with them all there was to take. This, however, is a mere rumor. It is reported that at least a few prosecutions will develop in a few days.

A unique point in connection with the motion for a receiver was brought to light this morning prior to the decision rendered by Judge Reed.

A suit had been filed by Cecil Reed, as assignee of the Home Purchasing Co., to attempt to restrain the court from acting in the receiver motion.

The motion of injunction was issued by the clerk and served in person on Judge Reed who waived it aside, saying that the clerk had no power to issue an injunction order to restrain him from acting in any case. He then went ahead and rendered his decision.

THE WEEK'S NEWS IN THE COMMERCIAL WORLD

Bank clearings this week...$578,110 Same week last year.....731,638

General reports of trade from local wholesalers are very satisfactory. Trade is excellent and collections are fair. Retail trade has been very good, movements in light weight wearing apparel being especially good.

Dun & Co.'s Review.

R. O. Dun & Co.'s weekly review says:

Seasonable weather in most sections has done much to stimulate lagging retail trade in lightweight wearing apparel and greatly improved the entire business situation by accelerating the maturity of agricultural products. A few more weeks of favorable climate conditions will put large quantities of grain beyond danger, while late planted corn and cotton are rapidly recovering lost ground. These are the most important commercial influences at this season of the year, jobbers advance orders being largely dependent on local conditions at the interior and manufacturers gauging their activity by outlook for fall and winter distributions.

If leading manufacturing industries there is less idle machinery than is customary at this time of in-lagencies, especially at plants making textile fabrics, despite the fact that prices of raw materials are somewhat inflated.

Building operations are more numerous and involve a greater amount of capital than at this time in recent preceding years; railway earnings for June thus far exceed last year's by 8.1 per cent and foreign commerce at this port for last week is fairly well maintained, exports gaining $338,270 in comparison with last year, while imports decreased $1,172,707.

The Mergenthaler-Horton basket company, of Mechanicsburg, which has been growing rapidly, has broken another record. Yesterday during the regular working hours it turned out 123,000 baskets, about 40,000 more than the record before yesterday. Manager Morris is a hustler, has the best of men and material, and gets mighty big contracts. The number turned out yesterday would probably be enough to supply the city of Paducah half a century.

The Peanut company yesterday shipped a car load of peanuts to Salt Lake City, Utah. It is the largest shipment for such a distant point that the company ever made.

At a sale of the Textile company's stock in Mechanicsburg yesterday by receiver S. T. Randle, the outfit was bought in by Attorney W. A. Aderly, for Union City people, for $205. The sale was in pursuance of judgments in favor of Seth Carlin against T. H. Green and others.

Yesterday's Mayfield Messenger says:

Mr. Fred Kreutzer, proprietor of the Star Bakery of Paducah, was in the city last night. He is preparing to open up a branch house for the purpose of handling his goods and will return in a few days to perfect arrangements for putting his goods on the Mayfield market.

The Louisville Times of yesterday gives the following information, which will be of interest here:

"It is reported that the Tennessee Central has changed its plans for a northern extension. The new plan is to build a line from Clarksville, Tenn., up the Cumberland river, to the Ohio river and also to extend from Hopkinsville, Ky., to Paducah."

W. H. Smith, formerly president of the Globe Bank here, denies that he is going to locate in Atlanta. Yesterday's Louisville Times says:

A rumor became current today in banking and financial circles to the effect that W. H. Smith, president of the Western National bank, was going to resign and move to Atlanta, where he has acquired an interest in a recently organized bank. Mr. Smith requested a reporter for The Times to deny this.

"I have no intention," he said, "either of resigning as president of the Western Bank or of leaving Louisville. I suppose the report got out through me having taken some stock in a new bank in Atlanta. This bank, which has no quarters as yet, and has not been named, is capitalized at $500,000."

Mr. Smith is interested in a chain of banks through the Middle West.

PEACE CONFERENCE AT HOT SPRINGS, VA

This is the Latest Talk Going the Rounds.

Alexeff Quoted as Saying Russia Will Neither Cede Territory Nor Pay Indemnity.

NO ARMISTICE AGREED ON YET.

New York, June 24.—Should weather conditions in Washington in August be unfavorable for the meeting of peace delegates from Russia and Japan an adjournment may be taken to Hot Springs, Va. Arrangements to this effect are said to have about been completed by representatives of this government, whose guests the delegates will be while negotiations are being carried on.

The Bayan Floated.

Tokio, June 24.—The Japanese commander at Port Arthur reports that the Russian armored cruiser Bayan has been successfully floated.

Russia May Concede Little.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—Admiral Alexeff said today that the Russian government is determined not to agree to a cessation of any territory to Japan or pay an indemnity in the arrangement of peace terms. He also declared that Russia had decided not to give up the island of Saghalien.

No Armistice Yet.

Washington, June 24.—Japanese Minister Takahira called at the White House last night and conferred with the president. When he left he was asked if there were any developments regarding an armistice between the armies of Japan and Russia. Takahira would not discuss the question, but suggested that there were "some matters" to be settled first.

Presented With a Badge.

At the last night meeting of the Golden Cross society a handsome badge was presented to Mr. C. H. Hart, of the I. C. railroad shops, presiding officer, as a mark of appreciation from the local commandery. On next Thursday night the meeting will be held at 428 1/2 Broadway, when a large number of candidates will receive the degree. Refreshments will close the meeting.

He came to Louisville about a year ago, when he acquired a large interest in the Western National Bank.

A former Paducah boy, Fred Hipple, has bought a distillery at Marion, Ky. The Marion Press says: "Last week the Robertson & Co. distillery was purchased by Fred Hipple, of Madisonville, who is in the saloon business at that place and who is reputed to be one of the most wealthy business men of the city. Notwithstanding the Robertson distillery has not been run for several years, it is certain that the conditions are such that it can be run on its present site quite successfully."

Mr. Ed Trouse, for ten years in the shoe department of Rndy & Phillips, has resigned to join the corps of travelling salesmen for the Lax Fos company, of Paducah. His territory will be North Carolina, and he left this afternoon on his maiden trip, going from here to Asheville. He will locate in Raleigh, N. C., his headquarters, and will move his family there about July 15. Mr. Trouse's many friends will wish him a full measure of success in his new work and home.

The People's Independent Telephone Co., of this city, will pass into the hands of the Paducah Home Telephone Co., a newly organized company which filed articles of incorporation this morning in county court.

The incorporators of the new company are J. C. Monteth, of Illinoisington, Ind.; J. E. Hergin, of Sault-Ste. Marie, Pa.; and J. Wheeler Campbell, of this city. The company will supply buy out the local People's Co. and the Wilkesboro people will meet in Wilkesboro Monday to effect the deal.

Pitchers Ed. Minnehan and Howard Canitz of the Toledo American Association ball club, have gone to Rutland, Vt., to play in independent league. These pitchers were suspended by President Griffin a week ago for violations of rules, but had been reinstated on promise to be good. Beck Butler, formerly with the Kitty, and late with Memphis, who started out with Toledo, is also playing independent ball on account of a split with former Manager Finn of Toledo. Butler's home is in Jackson, Tenn., but he is playing with various teams in this vicinity. Canitz pitched for the Pittsburgh Nationals against Paducah the latter part of last season.

It is announced by President Kavanaugh that Empire Frank H. Bassett has resigned, and that he has appointed "Red" Ehret, the veteran pitcher, as Bassett's successor. The reason given by Bassett for resigning is the ill health of his wife, whom he will take to California. Bassett has been working at Little Rock.

The Hopkinsville New Era says that Eddie Kolb proposes to organize Owensboro and bring the town into the league next year. The addition of Owensboro to the league would strengthen the Kitty.

Catcher Schissel has been persuaded to remain with the team until July 1. He has wanted to return to his home in Indianapolis for the past few days, owing to illness in his family, but consented to remain until another could be secured and the crippled players were able to return to the game. Henderson Gleason.

Empire Schuster, formerly in the K. I. T. league, is badly battered up and Right Fielder Randall and Second Basemen Perrine of the Denver Western league team are out on $100 bail for assaulting Schuster in the game in which Denver and Sioux City were fighting for first place. With the score 20 to 1 for the home team in the seventh, Randall was called out at second. He and Perrine, who was coaching, called Schuster foul names and were ordered off the grounds. The Denver players closed in and the game was forfeited to Sioux City. Then Randall smashed Schuster in the eye, dazing him, and Perrine slugged him in the back of the head, knocking him down. A riot ensued, which took Chief Dineen and six policemen with fifty cool-headed fans to quell. Sioux City players rescued Schuster, and but for quick police interference the Denverites would have mobbed him. The players were fined $10.

Clyde Goodwin, the former Vincennes twirler, has been traded by Indianapolis to Milwaukee for Pitcher Curtis, one of the stars of the American association. While in Indianapolis he was never satisfied and would not do his best.

Morris Hord, a member of Hopkinsville's first all-professional club, is here mingling with his friends. He has signed a contract to catch for Calro and will likely be in the double header this afternoon. McNamara, who plays right field for Calro, is an actor. In the winter he and his wife appear in comic opera. Last season they were with Florodora.—Hopkinsville New Era.

"Mickey" Finn, who was recently let out of the management of the Toledo American Association team by J. Ed Grillo, because of dissatisfaction in the ranks of the "Mud-hens," wants to land a job in the Central League and he has written a letter to President Carson for a tip regarding a possible vacancy. Finn is well known here, his club having had its spring practice here.

President Charlie Brown, of the Kitty league, went to St. Louis this morning on business. He was accompanied by Charlie Bush, a former umpire in the league.

A new amateur baseball team has been organized in Paducah. The name of the team is F. W. Cooks and will play its initial game tomorrow with the Shamrocks, of the City League. The lineup of the team is as follows: Horace English, c; B. Barnhart, p; Guy Burnett, lb; Ed Knight, 2b; C. Council, 3b; Fred English, ss; Dell Edwards, rf; Gordon Emery, cf; Claude English lf.

The Paduats, a crack amateur team from Calro, and the Famous, of the Paducah City league, will meet at Wazoo park Sunday afternoon.

SPECIAL TAX

MUST BE PAID TO UNCLE SAM BEFORE FRIDAY NIGHT.

Government Very Strict and Liqueur Dealers Must Be Prompt or Pay 50 Per Cent. Penalty.

Liquor dealers must pay their special tax on or before Friday night of next week or they will have to close up shop that night at midnight, as Uncle Sam does not recognize delinquent taxes. He wants cash in advance and must have it or the violator of the law will be made to suffer criminally.

In common parlance special tax means saloon license. The government has all licenses or special tax stamps to expire on June 30 of each fiscal year, whether they are bought one month or twelve months before that time. This, therefore, means that every saloon license in the United States will expire Friday night of next week at midnight.

Most of the taxpayers will wait until the last two or three days and there will be a big rush.

PADUCAH BREWERY COMPANY
Paducah, Ky.

In payment for special tax stamps as well as for other things Uncle Sam will not accept individual checks, even though it is well known that they are certified by the proper bank authorities. An employee who accepts anything but cash or its absolute equivalent stands personally accountable for the money. Those who go to the stamp deputy, Mr. L. L. Bebout, had best, therefore, carry the cash.

Heretofore the tax could be paid any time in July, but under the new ruling all taxes must be paid on or before June 30th, and must be paid so they will reach the collector's office at Owensboro before July 1st. For failure to pay there is a penalty of fifty per cent.

Car Repairer Hurt.
Mr. Ed Jones, a well known L. C. car repairer employed on the local jacking tracks, was painfully but not seriously injured Friday afternoon. He was using a large spike maul and the head of the tool flew off and struck him in the head, inflicting a painful wound. The injury was dressed at the local L. C. hospital.

THE GIFT OF JUNE.

"What has June brought me?"
I ask of the roses.
"What has the summer,
With grandeur above her,
Brought me, dear roses?"
They answer, "A lover!"

And in truth he has come
With this month of the flowers:
These days of fresh fragrance
From Dawn's dew-peaked bowers
"My heart's own true knight
For a year and a day."

He shall be, oh, my love,
And forever and aye."

KALFIS KURTZ GEMING

A Social Whirl.

Paducah has entered on her mid-summer gaiety which always bids fair to rival the mid-winter season. This week has seen the beginning, and the coming week promises to be a crowded one for many entertainments on one hand that are not yet definitely announced. In fact, the general difficulty seems to be finding an unoccupied date.

The presence of many charming visitors in the city is a direct cause of the gaiety, together with the home coming of younger society set from the various colleges and schools. Much of the pleasure of the past week has been made in honor of the home-party at the Gregory country home, which has been a center of social gaiety. This party will continue into the coming week.

White-Bradshaw Wedding at Athens.

The wedding of Mr. William Francis Bradshaw, Jr., of this city to Miss Roseana Ashton White, of Athens, Ga., is described by the Athens papers as one of the most beautiful and brilliant social events ever witnessed in that city.

The marriage took place at the First Presbyterian church and the decorations were most effective. Hundreds of pink hydrangeas, ferns and palms were arranged about the altar, and the big auditorium was a blaze of light from the many incandescent lamps, and was crowded with the invited guests in brilliant attire.

Miss Roseana Thomas, a cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor, and wore pink chiffon and carried pink carnations. The maid of honor, Mrs. James H. Whitehead, of Waverly, was attired in white satin and carried white carnations. The bridesmaids who were charming in white chiffon and pink carnations were: Misses Carrie Walden, Annie H. Philby, Mary Gerline, Marie Lustant, Isabella Thomas, of Athens, Madge Houston, of Augusta, Marie Stevens, of Mazon, Ackie White, of Covington, Hallie Park, of Greensboro, and Elsie Bradshaw of Paducah, Ky. The groomsmen were: Marcell H. Nash, Jr., of Louisville, Ky.; Hinton Hopkins, of Birmingham, W. A. Wilkins, of Waverly, Jack Hart, Harvard Benedict, Audley Morton, Joe Morton, Lathuer, Rob White, and J. W. Welch, of Athens. Mr. Louis M. Riecke, Jr., of Paducah, officiated as the best man.

The bride wore a lovely creation of white duchess satin and real lace, with handsome tulle veil, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. She entered with her father, Capt. James White, and was met at the altar by the groom and the best man. Rev. J. W. Walden, D. D., of the Presbyterian church performed the ceremony.

Immediately following the marriage there was a beautiful reception at the elegant White home on Prince avenue. Here the decorations were of exquisite beauty, of the same color-scheme as the church, and charmingly emphasizing the stately beauty of the handsome old antebellum home. Especially lovely were the bride's table and the bridesmaids' table. The entire room was devoted to the magnificent presents received. The gift of the bride's parents was a handsome chest of silver, and the entire list was in keeping.

the reception, over the Seaboard Air Line on a wedding tour in the mountains of Western North Carolina. They will be at home in Paducah after July 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bradshaw, Sr., of Paducah, father and mother of the groom, were among the out-of-town guests to the wedding.

A Montana Military Wedding.

The Anaconda, Mont., Standard gives an elaborate description of the recent wedding of Miss Emily Miriam Marshall, daughter of Col. Thomas C. Marshall, of Missoula, Montana, to Captain Frank Halstead, son of Murat Halstead of Cincinnati, Ohio. The wedding took place at the Church of the Holy Spirit, in Missoula, and was a full dress military affair. The church was decorated with flags and guns were stacked at intervals in the aisles as is the custom at military weddings.

The groom, best man, groomsmen and ushers were all army officers, and it made a most imposing spectacle. It was a two-ring ceremony and the ring bearers carried the rings in eagle ally cups. The bride wore white silk net over chiffon and over silk, trimmed in much real lace, and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaids wore dresses of blue crepe de chine and wreaths of pink roses. The bride's gifts to her maids were beautiful necklaces of turquoise and the groom presented his groomsmen with gold sword knits.

An elaborate reception followed the wedding ceremony at the home of Col. Marshall. It was exceedingly beautiful and effective in the decorations. The couple went to the Portland Centennial on their bridal trip and will later go to Madison Barracks, N. Y., where the groom has been ordered.

Col. Marshall is well known in Paducah, where he formerly lived, and is a son of the late Judge Charles Marshall, of Paducah. He is a nephew of Mrs. Josephine Ezell of North Fifth street, and a cousin of the Hon. Hal S. Corbett. His daughter and her sister have visited here as children.

Daily Thought.

"If it required no brains, no nerve, no energy, no work, there would be no glory in achievement."

THE RURAL CORRESPONDENT.
 At last a good word has been spoken for the country correspondent. The Owensboro Messenger says:

"When the 'country correspondent' writes that 'the tire came off Bill Jones' buggy as he was going to town on Saturday,' he does not realize that that item will be read with interest in a distant city, perhaps, by some one who knew 'Bill Jones' when he was a mere youth killing potato bugs on the farm."

It recalls other memories long since forgotten and for a few minutes carries you, seemingly, from the bustle of the city, back to boyhood—back to the days when you drove over to the station, leaving the old folks standing in the door waving their red bandanna handkerchiefs at you. You boarded the train for the city and upon reaching the metropolis you established yourself for life and became a "man of affairs."

You read in the next issue where "Jim Smith was around here calling last Sunday. Something doing?" You knew Jim Smith's father, and that, too, recalls pleasant thoughts. It is with enthusiasm you scan the pages of the next issue of your home paper to see if "Jim Smith" has married.

And yet people ask an editor why he publishes so much "stuff" from the little country towns. Every item written by the country correspondent is of interest to some one. To those who have not visited their old homes for years it is like a letter.

The Messenger might have added that the correspondent also contributes to the world his own peculiar kind of humor, which often evokes a smile where all other humor fails.

The rural writer is a very indispensable individual.

There seems to be an effort on part of some of the tobacco growers of Tennessee to dispute the government report about the probable crop this year. Whether it is an effort to make it appear that the crop is going to be smaller than it really is because many of the growers in certain sections have pledged themselves to raise only a certain amount, whether it is in order to keep up the price or simply because it is true, is not plain. One of the reports sent out from Clarksville, however, says:

"A member of the Planters' Association, who has just returned from a trip to Ballard, McCracken, Graves, Caldwell and Trigg counties, Ky., says that only about 30 per cent of the average tobacco crop has been planted in that section. The government report stated that in these counties there had been a 20 per cent increase in the acreage." The gentleman who made that tour perhaps can't see well, and ought to take another look. Tobacco men in the sections named say that the crop about here will be an average one, possibly a little larger than usual, but certainly not smaller than usual.

A government engineer has exploded the oft-repeated story that the Paducah harbor was being placed in jeopardy by the washing away of the bank at Livingston Point. A few years ago every time a local paper would run a story on news it would print a rebuke of the Livingston Point story. An investigation has at last been made and Paducah's harbor is found to be safe, and there is no damage being done at the Point by the water. The government engineer, had he examined the island opposite the city, would doubtless have ascertained the same thing about the talked-of washing away of the island and the ruining of the harbor here. Paducah's harbors, both commercial and ice, are in good shape and bid fair to remain so.

The mayor contemplates calling the city supervisors in special session to consider about fifty complaints of erroneous assessment. These complaints should have been filed before the supervisors at their regular sitting, and the right of the mayor to call the supervisors in special session at the expense of the taxpayers, after they have already sat three or four weeks longer than allowed by law, seems to be in doubt.

The Frankfort State Journal says: "The Louisville Herald says that Gen. Percy Haly is dying to work. You've got it wrong, old pudding head. Gen. Haly had rather die than to work."

For St. Louis on the Excursion This Morning.

An excursion was run to St. Louis via Brookport this morning, leaving the I. C. union depot at 7 o'clock.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car, one coach being reserved for negroes. The ticket agent at the depot ran out of tickets before the crowd could pile in and a number had to be taken to the freight depot where tickets could be procured. A total of 233 tickets was sold out of this city.

Other coaches will be added to the train at Brookport is reached and by the time it arrives in St. Louis will have over a thousand passengers. It is thought. The fare from Paducah for the round trip was $2.

Borax Bill is Dead.

Danville, Ill., June 23.—William Parkinson, the famous frontiersman known as "Borax Bill," driver of the twenty-mule team that attracted attention at the St. Louis exposition, died in an ambulance in this city from the effects of an overdose of morphine taken to relieve pain. Parkinson was found unconscious in his room at the Aetna hotel and was placed in an ambulance to be taken to the hospital. He came to Danville with the mule team last Wednesday and was left here on account of illness. "Borax Bill" took the first borax out of Death valley. He leaves relatives in California.

THE BLOCK SYSTEM HAS BEEN ORDERED

For the Louisville-Central City District of the I. C.

Work Will Begin at Once—The Improvements Are to Cost About $75,000.

INCREASE OF BUSINESS LARGE

All passenger stations on the Illinois Central railroad between Louisville and Central City will be opened all night within the next two months, following the establishment of a block signal system over the line between the two points. Work on the block system will begin July 1, and about 60 days will be necessary to complete the work of installation. After that time telegraph operators will be placed at all stations and siding points where trains pass. The establishment of the system will cost about $75,000.

With the establishment of the night service at the small stations along the line the efforts being made to secure additional postal arrangements on the Illinois Central between Louisville and Central City, promise to be successful.

Establishment of the block signal system between Louisville and Central City has become necessary on account of the increase of business and consequent increase of trains on this division. Freight traffic, especially in the coal line, has nearly doubled during the past year, and the handling of such an increase of trains through a single dispatcher's office under the old system is necessarily slower than under the block system.

The block system is being adopted by many lines in the east and is considered the safest method of handling trains, especially upon tracks used by many trains a day. By this system the division affected is divided into portions called "blocks," in each of which is established a telegraph station. Upon entering a "block" a signal is flashed to the operator in charge, who notifies the dispatcher, and the chief office is thus connected with each train over every foot of track.

The Illinois Central has already established the block system on its road from Central City to Memphis, greatly adding to its facilities. The new move was expected, but this is the first official announcement of it.

IN THE COURTS

Police Court.
 The principal case in police court this morning was that against J. B. Hordenox, charged with acting as agent for the Home Purchasing Co., without a state license.

The attorneys argued something like half an hour on points of law relative to the testimony of witnesses and after much debating the case was left open for further proof.

The case of breach of the peace against City Jailor Tom Evitts was not tried this morning on account of Officer Wm. Headles' condition. Jailor Evitts is alleged to have struck Officer Headles near Thirteenth and Clay streets with his fist. Officer Headles was injured about the face and head but came to the station this morning and later became too ill to remain and had to go home.

Other cases were: Fred Holloway, Dade Stone and Warner Williams, colored, charged with gambling, $20 and costs against former two, and left open as to latter; Wm. Morris, colored, house-breaking, left open; John Griffin, colored, false swearing, continued; Alonzo Pollard, colored, malicious cutting, continued; Joe Williams, colored, breach of the peace, $5 and costs.

Richard Houghle, white, who knocked out an eye for Minnie McQueen, of West Kentucky avenue, was fined $25 and costs in police court this morning for a breach of the peace.

The McQueen woman was badly injured and the first warrant issued was for malicious assault with intent to kill. Houghle escaped from the city after the night of the fight and was several weeks after located and arrested in Calico.

Sued For Back Taxes.
 Attorney C. C. Grassham who represents the Eagle Flour Spar Co., of Crittenden county, has received notice that his company is among five against which suits for back taxes have been filed by A. M. Harrison, revenue agent for the state at large. The company Attorney Grassham represents is sued for back taxes on $100,000 and Attorney Grassham will leave in a few days for Marion county to look into the suit.

To Reform School.
 Officer Aaron Hurley will leave tonight for Lexington, Ky., with Genia Scott, colored, who was ordered taken to the reform school several weeks ago for robbery.

Bankrupt Appraisement.
 The appraisement of the estate of the bankrupt in the case of Frank B. Smith, was filed yesterday, the appraisement being $321 which will barely cover the costs, etc. This will, of course, make it impossible for a distribution because of the absence of assets over the exemptions. The bankrupt listed liabilities to the amount of $15,000. He was a business in Dover, Tenn., in 1899 and failed.

County Court.
 M. A. Lane deeds to C. T. Hodge, for $575, property in the county. West End Improvement Co. deeds to John H. and Mary E. Dugger, for $1,425, property at 27th and Broadway.

Magnolia Blossom

Owes Her Life to

Magnolia Blossom

Mrs. W. A. Hatfield, of Buckett, Ind., says:

"I suffered for years with Piling of the Womb and Uteration after doctoring with some of the best doctors and trying everything else with no benefit, until two years ago I began using your MAGNOLIA BLOSSOM, and I can now truly say that I owe my life to it. Every suffering woman would not only receive permanent relief, but would save hundreds of dollars in fruitless doctors' bills if they would use MAGNOLIA BLOSSOM. It is a pleasant treatment, and can be used by the patient at home. Ladies, take my advice and treat yourselves and believe me a true friend to suffering women. Yours truly,
 MRS. W. A. HATFIELD, Buckett, Ind."

WHY DO WOMEN SUFFER?

And from day to day endure all those racking and distressing complaints so common to the sex? Because they dread medical treatment of examinations, and prefer to suffer on in silence rather than submit to them. To this class a simple home treatment like MAGNOLIA BLOSSOM is welcomed as a blessing. Hundreds of women and girls whose life had been one continuous burden have been restored to health and strength by the use of this famous specific. One dollar for one month's treatment places it within the reach of all. Write the South Bend Remedy Co., South Bend, Ind. Our book entitled a "Book for Women" sent free to any address. Valuable medical advice from our lady physicians sent free of any cost whatever.

CHANGE IN RULES.

Is Necessary to Save Steamboat Owners $100,000.

Washington, June 23. As a result of a clerical error made in transcribing the new rules and regulations governing the steamboat inspection service, it has been decided to hold a meeting of the executive committee of the general board early in July. For many years vessel owners have been required to mark on the stem of lifeboats their cubic feet capacity. There was no intention to change this provision, but it was discovered after the new regulations had been printed that "stem" had been spelled "stern." To change the mark from stern to stern would have entailed a loss of more than $100,000 to vessel owners. Accordingly the executive committee will be asked to provide that the mark shall be placed on the stern instead of on the stern. Another change will be made in the rules by the executive committee. It will formally endorse several patterns of fire extinguishers that were not marked "approved" by the board of supervising inspectors which met here last fall.

BELT ROAD.

Will Probably Be Built Out of Marion, Ky.

A party of capitalists from Pennsylvania and Indiana were at Marion, Ky., a few days ago, in charge of Capt. House looking over this and the Salem district with a view of building a belt line railroad from Mexico by way of Salem and Crittenden Springs to Marion. After making a careful examination of the district they left highly pleased with the prospects for a good tonnage from the time the road can be completed and placed in operation. There is a quiet movement on foot for the building of such a belt line road and will probably develop soon into something more realistic and substantial.

The Return of SHERLOCK HOLMES

By A. CONAN DOYLE.

Author of "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes," "The Hound of the Baskervilles," "The Sign of the Four," "A Study in Scarlet," Etc.

ILLUSTRATED BY F. D. STEELE

The Adventure of the Norwood Builder

No. 2 of the Series

"The case has certainly some points of interest," said he in his laconic fashion. "May I ask, in the first place, Mr. McFarlane, how it is that you are still at liberty, since there appears to be enough evidence to justify your arrest?"

"I live at Torrington Lodge, Blackheath, with my parents, Mr. Holmes, but last night, having to do business very late with Mr. Jones Oldacre, I stayed at a hotel in Norwood and came to my business from there. I knew nothing of this affair until I was in the train, when I read what you have just heard. I at once saw the horrible danger of my position, and I hurried to put the case into your hands. I have no doubt that I should have been arrested either at my city office or at my home. A man followed me from London Bridge station, and I have no doubt—great heaven! What is that?"

It was a clang of the bell, followed instantly by heavy steps on the stairs. A moment later our old friend Lestrade appeared in the doorway. Over his shoulder I caught a glimpse of one or two uniformed policemen outside.

"Mr. John Hector McFarlane?" said Lestrade.

"Our unfortunate client rose, with a ghastly face.

"I arrest you for the willful murder of Mr. Jones Oldacre of Lower Norwood." McFarlane turned to us with a gesture of despair and sank into his chair once more like one who is crushed.

"The moment, Lestrade," said Holmes, "half an hour more or less can make no difference to you, and the gentleman was about to give us an account of this very interesting affair which might add to its clearing it up."

"I think there will be no difficulty in clearing it up," said Lestrade grimly. "None the less, with your permission, I should be much interested to hear his account."

"Well, Mr. Holmes, it is difficult for me to refuse you anything, for you have been of use to the force once or twice in the past, and we owe you a good turn at Scotland Yard," said Lestrade. "At the same time I must remind you, my prisoner, and I am bound to warn him that anything he may say will appear in evidence against him."

"I wish nothing better," said our client. "All I ask is that you should hear and recognize the absolute truth."

Lestrade looked at his watch. "I'll give you half an hour," said he. "I must explain first," said McFarlane, "that I knew nothing of Mr. Jones Oldacre. His name was familiar to me, for many years ago my parents were acquainted with him, but they drifted apart. I was very much surprised, therefore, when yesterday about 3 o'clock in the afternoon he walked into my office in the city. But I was still more astonished when he told me the object of his visit. He had in his hand several sheets of a notebook, covered with scribbled writing, here they are—and he laid them on my table."

"Here is my will," said he. "I want you, Mr. McFarlane, to cast it into proper legal shape. I will sit here while you do so."

"I set myself to copy it, and you can imagine my astonishment when I found that, with some reservations, he had left all his property to me. He was a strange little ferretlike man, with white eyelashes, and when I looked up at him I found his keen gray eyes fixed upon me with an unusual expression. I could hardly believe my own senses as I read the terms of the will, but he explained that he was a bachelor with hardly any living relation, that he had known my parents in his youth and that he had always heard of me as a very deserving young man and was assured that his money would be in worthy hands. Of course I could only stammer out my thanks.

"The will was duly finished, signed and witnessed by my clerk. This is it on the blue paper, and these slips, as I have explained, are the rough draft. Mr. Jones Oldacre then informed me that there were a number of documents—building leases, title deeds, mortgages, scrip, and so forth—which it was necessary that I should see and understand. He said that his mind would not be easy until the whole thing was settled, and he begged me to come out to his house at Norwood that night, bringing the will with me, and to arrange matters. 'Remember, my boy, not one word to your parents about the affair until everything is settled. We will keep it as a little surprise for them.' He was very insistent upon this point and made me promise it faithfully.

"You can imagine, Mr. Holmes, that I was not in a humor to refuse him anything that he might ask. He was my benefactor, and all my desire was to carry out his wishes in every particular. I wrote a telegram home, therefore, to say that I had important business.

ness on hand and that it was impossible for me to say how late I might be. Mr. Oldacre had told me that he would like me to have supper with him at 8, as he might not be home before that hour. I had some difficulty in finding his house, however, and it was nearly half past before I reached it. I found him.

"The moment," said Holmes, "who opened the door?"

"A middle-aged woman, who was, I suppose, his housekeeper."

"And it was she, I presume, who mentioned your name?"

"Exactly," said McFarlane.

"Pray proceed."

McFarlane wiped his damp brow and then continued his narrative: "I was shown by this woman into a sitting room, where a frugal supper was laid out. Afterward Mr. Jones Oldacre led me into his bedroom. In which stood a heavy safe. This he opened and took out a mass of documents, which we went over together. It was between 11 and 12 when we finished. He remarked that we must not disturb the housekeeper. He showed me out through his own French window, which had been open all this time."

"Was the blind down?" asked Holmes.

"I will not be sure, but I believe that it was only half down. Yes, I remember how he pulled it up in order to swing open the window. I could not find my stick, and he said, 'Never mind, my boy, I shall see a good deal of you now, I hope, and I will keep your stick until you come back to claim it.' I left him there, the safe open and the papers made up in packets upon the table. It was so late that I could not get back to Blackheath, so I spent the night at the Anker Arms, and I knew nothing more until I read of this horrible affair in the morning."

"Anything more that you would like to ask, Mr. Holmes?" said Lestrade, whose eyebrows had gone up once or twice during this remarkable explanation.

"Not until I have been to Blackheath."

"You mean to Norwood," said Lestrade.

"Oh, yes; no doubt that is what I must have meant," said Holmes, with his enigmatical smile. Lestrade had learned by more experience than he would care to acknowledge that that razorlike brain could cut through that which was impenetrable to him. I saw him look curiously at my companion. "I think I should like to have a word with you presently, Mr. Sherlock Holmes," said he. "Now, Mr. McFarlane, two of my constables are at the door, and there is a fair wheeler waiting." The wretched young man arose and with a last beseeching glance at us walked from the room. The officers continued him to the cab, but Lestrade remained.

Holmes had picked up the pages which formed the rough draft of the will and was looking at them with the keenest interest upon his face.

"There are some points about that document, Lestrade, are there not?"

NIP AND TUCK

BETWEEN TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANIES.

To See Which Sets the Weather Report in First For Their Many Patrons.

A test is being made by the United States government in sending out weather forecasts, which may work an entire change in the system now in vogue. Heretofore, the forecasts have been sent out from the observation bureau points in this territory over Western Union telegraph wires. Beginning on Monday of the present week the reports also were sent over the lines of the Cumberland Telephone company. This will be continued for a month and in the event the telephone service proves more prompt the telegraph method will be discarded and all forecasts handled over telephone lines.

The forecast will be general for this district, the Louisville exchange getting it from Government Observatory, at that point. From Louisville it will be telephoned to the headquarters of the Cumberland company at Nashville and from there sent out to the various exchanges. The weather forecasts will be turned over to the postoffice and sent out through the country by the rural carriers and it is the ultimate plan to put a copy of the forecast each day into every rural mail box which will be a much more general circulation than has previously been given.

Only a small part of the test period has expired and it is too early to get any life on the final outcome. No general statements are obtainable as yet as to the result over the entire territory in which the test is being made. The location of points with reference to the head office will, of course, be a factor in determining which service will be used. The telephone company will be handicapped in reaching some points, as well as the telegraph company at others. Sometimes one report arrives first, and again the other.

'SUES FOR $75,000.

Abraham Walker, one of the negroes who claims he was forced to vacate Union City as the result of the shooting of two policemen during the early part of May, has filed suit in the United States circuit court against J. C. Hurdick, William White, Walter G. Reynolds, Samuel Ozley and Edward Kirkland, by which he seeks to recover $75,000 damages. In the declaration the complainant alleges that his restaurant at Union City was demolished and that he was told to leave that place and never to return again. Since that time he claims to have settled at a point in Missouri.

Changes Wanted by Lawyers.

Covington, Ky., June 24.—At the second and closing day's session of the Kentucky Bar association S. D. Rouse, chairman of the committee on Law and Reform, read a paper suggesting three important changes in the existing statutes of Kentucky. It is proposed that in all controversies over mutual property husband and wife should be allowed to testify against one another and against third parties. A change in the state jury was also suggested, allowing that twenty-four grand jurors be chosen instead of twenty, as the law requires at present. The third important suggestion was that all decisions of the court of appeals be published. An animated discussion followed on all these points.

Stock Ordinance Repealed.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 24.—The city council, in called session, repealed the stock ordinance passed June 2. Councilman J. B. Jackson, by whose vote the law was passed, changed front and voted to repeal it.

A Remarkable Escape.

Marion, Ky., June 24.—At the Senator mine in Caldwell county, Coy Weakes, a one-armed man about twenty years old, accidentally fell from the top to the bottom of the 78 foot shaft, but happening to fall upon a workman at the bottom of the shaft, strange to narrate, he not only was not seriously hurt himself, no bones being broken, but the workman struck was not more than bruised a little, and was able to go right on to work. Young Weakes was not employed at the mine, and was merely standing around.

Owensboro, Ky., June 24.—M. V. Monarch, formerly one of the leading business men of Owensboro, was declared insane in the circuit court and a guardian ad litem appointed to look after his interests in a suit brought by the Columbus Finance and Trust company, of Louisville, to which he is a party defendant. He was one of the owners of the Monarch Distilleries which were involved in a large assignment a few years ago.

His mind has been thought to be unbalanced for sometime.

Woman Has Hydrophobia.

Owensboro, Ky., June 24.—Mrs. W. H. Reynolds, of this county, has a genuine case of hydrophobia. The symptoms of the disease were first noticed several days ago, although it is thought that she has had the disease for several months. The attacks come about four hours apart and are manifested by frothing at the mouth. About a year ago Mrs. Reynolds had a pet dog which developed hydrophobia and she nursed it during all the stages of the disease. The dog did not bite her and it is supposed that the disease came from getting the poison in some slight abrasion of the skin.

Trouble in Breathitt.

Jackson, Ky., June 24.—During a circus near town Jake Noble, while drinking, became disorderly, it is charged, and when a deputy sheriff tried to arrest him drew his pistol. His brothers, John and Elisha, however, came to the rescue of the officer, and attempted to get Jake put up his weapon. This the latter declined to do, and when Hiram Centers and several other deputies came up with drawn pistols, demanding his surrender, he backed into a crowd of his friends, who agreed to take him away from the scene after objecting strenuously to any attempts to place him under arrest.

Later in the day Jake Noble and his brothers, John, Elisha and Green, were placed in jail on the charge of disorderly conduct and interfering with an officer.
